Technology-based long form questions for the NIH AAP application
- SAMPLE ONLY -

1. What type of technology will you be developing in your proposed SBIR/STTR project? *

- ☐ Drug
- ☐ Research Tool
- ☐ Combination Product
- ☐ Medical Device
- ☐ Diagnostic
- ☐ Health IT / Education
- ☐ Other

2. Project Title (limit 200 characters) *

[   ]

3. The Technology Innovation. (Up to 1,500 characters) *

Instructions: Describe the innovation that will be the focus of your Phase I SBIR/STTR project. Briefly discuss the benefits compared to competing technologies.

[   ]

4. The Unmet Need. (Up to 1,500 characters) *

Instructions: Describe the problem you are trying to solve and how this will improve human health.

[   ]

5.   What Institute Are You Applying To? * (Select only one)

- ○   National Cancer Institute (NCI)
- ○   National Institute of Neurological Disorders and Stroke (NINDS)

- Do not submit. Not actual AAP application -

○ National Institute on Aging (NIA)

○ National Heart, Lung, and Blood Institute (NHLBI)

○ The National Center for Complementary and Integrative Health (NCCIH)

○ The National Center for Advancing Translational Sciences (NCATS)

○ The National Institute of Environmental Health Sciences (NIEHS)

○ The National Institute of Nursing Research (NINR)

6. Fit within the NIH Institutes and Centers' mission. (Up to 1,500 characters) *

Instructions: Explain how your project fits within the mission of the institute that you are applying to.

7. Describe the current state of your technology (i.e., concept, prototype phase, in vitro testing, etc.). (Up to 200 characters) *

8. Describe the premise that supports the scientific rationale for your proposal (upload 1-page pdf only). *

Instructions: Please make sure to clearly distinguish the preliminary data generated by your company and/or your collaborators versus data that is from public knowledge. Upload a pdf file of 1 page or less. Figures and tables may be included. Any text over 1 page or links to external materials (i.e., web links, etc.) will not be reviewed.

9. NIH SBIR/STTR Phase I Goals and Milestones. (Up to 3,000 characters) *

Instructions: Describe the scope of work to be completed in your Phase I SBIR/STTR project. Include a discussion of the developmental milestones that will be accomplished to advance the commercial development of your technology.

10. Describe your strategy to protect your technology from competitors (i.e., patents, copyright, etc.)? (Up to 500 characters) *